

READY TO GO — These Maryland School for the Blind students spent a few days last week at Wisp Ski area, McHenry, as guests of the Deep Creek Lake Lions Club and Village Inn. From left to right, above, are Ruth Umbel, instructor; Jim Sandwick, a recreation aide from the school who came with the group on his time off; Alton Foskey, George Matey, Anna Anonica, Debbie Mohler, and Ralph Hinson. Other groups of six students each are staying at Wisp this week and for the next two weeks to enjoy some beginner skiing.
